INTRODUCTION.

THIS bibliography of Aaron Burr was commenced some years ago in connection with that of Thomas Jefferson. It seemed best, however, to issue the Jefferson separately, and the following pages are now printed, believing they will be found of value for historical reference.

The arrangement is alphabetical under the name of the author when known, otherwise under the first word of the title, omitting particles.

To avoid cross references, books issued anonymously, or under a pseudonym, and placed under the name of the real author, are given in the first index under a short title.

The initials following some of the titles indicate the public libraries where the books may be found.

Abercrombie (J.) A Sermon Occasioned by the Death of Major Gen. Alexander Hamilton, who was killed by Aaron Burr, Esq., Vice-President of the United States, in a Duel, July 11, 1804. Preached in Christ Church and St. Peter's, Philadelphia, on Sunday, July 22d, 1804. By James Abercrombie, D. D., one of the Assistant Ministers of Christ Church and St. Peter's. Published by Request. Philadelphia; Printed and Published by H. Maxwell, North Second Street, opposite Christ Church, 1804.

8vo, pp. vii., 53. Postscript 1. P. H. S. 1.

Adams (H.) History of the United States of America during the Second Administration of Thomas Jefferson. By Henry Adams. Vol. I. New York: Charles Scribner's Sons, 1890.

2 volumes, 8vo, pp. (4) 471; (4) 500. C. 2.

Chapters 10, 11, 12, 13, 14 and 19 contain a very full account of Burr's schemes and preparations, the end of the conspiracy, and Burr's trial at Richmond.

[Adams (John Quincy).] Report of the Committee appointed to Inquire into the Facts relating to the Conduct of John Smith, a Senator of the United States from the State of Ohio, as an alleged Associate of Aaron Burr. December 31st, 1807. Printed by Order of the Senate. Printed by R. C. Weightman. Washington, 1808.

8vo, pp. 15, 93. C. S. 3.

The Report recommended "that John Smith be expelled from the Senate of the United States for his participation in the conspiracy of Aaron Burr against the peace, union and liberties of the people of the United States, that he has been guilty of conduct incompatible with his duty and station as a Senator of the United States."

The last ninety-three pages of the Report contain the bill of indictment against Smith and the evidence in support of it.

On the resolution to expel Mr. Smith it was decided in the negative.

[Alston (John).] A Short Review of the late proceedings at New Orleans; and some Remarks upon the Bill for suspending the privilege of the Writ of habeas corpus, which passed the Senate of the United States during the last Session of Congress. In two letters to the printer. By Agrestis. "Woe, woe betide that nation, where they who are not themselves attacked, hate not as much, pursue not as eagerly, the oppressor, as the oppressed himself." Vis. de Mirab: South Carolina, 1807.

8vo, 42, 1 errata. 4.

Title from the Library of Gordon L. Ford, Esq., of Brooklyn.

Another Edition. South Carolina, Printed. Richmond, Reprinted. Corrected and revised at the Office of the Impartial Observer, June, 1807.

8vo, pp. 35. B A.

Relates to the Burr-Wilkinson conspiracy, and condemns the passage of the above bill by the Senate, as unnecessary and arbitrary.

See also Supplement to the Georgetown Gazette (Wednesday, February 11, 1807), copy of a Letter from the Honorable Joseph Allston to his excellency Charles Pinckney (Oaks, February 6, 1807).

AN EXCEEDINGLY RARE AUTOGRAPH

Apparently Theodosia Burr's Last Letter to Her Fiance Before their Marriage

55. BURR (THEODOSIA, daughter of Aaron Burr, wife of Governor Alston of North Carolina). A. L. s., 2 pp., 4to. January 13-4, 1801. [To Joseph Alston.]

ONLY A FEW HOLOGRAPH LETTERS BY THEODOSIA BURR ARE KNOWN, AND THIS IS OF SPECIAL INTEREST AS IT IS APPARENTLY THE LAST LETTER WRITTEN TO HER FIANCÉ BEFORE THEIR MARRIAGE. It was thought by some of her friends that this marriage to Joseph Alston was a political move on the part of Aaron Burr, but this letter seems to prove otherwise. The marriage took place on February 2, 1801, and it is probable that Mr. Alston was already on his way north when this letter was written.

"I have already written to you by the post to tell you that I shall be happy to see you whenever you come, that I suppose is equivalent to very soon; and that you may no longer feel doubts or suspicions on my account I repeat the invitation . . . but for all these doubts and suspicions I will take ample revenge when we meet.

"I yesterday received your letter of the 26th Dec—& am expecting your defence of early marriages to day; my father laughs at my impatience to hear from you, and says I am in love . . .

"We leave this for Albany on the 26th Inst. and shall remain there till the 10th Feb'y—my movements after that depend upon my father & YOU. I had intended not to marry this twelve month & in that case thought it wrong to divert you from your present engagements in Carolina, but to your solicitations I yield my judgment . . ."

This map, which depicts California as an island, was first made in 1695 and was published by de Fer as early as 1700. A large block of letterpress gives the history of the exploration of New Mexico and parts of California.

58. —— Map. A Chart of the South Sea. By John Seller. Colored. Folio. [London, 1675.]

This map depicts California as an island.

A MANUSCRIPT LOG BOOK RECORDING SOME OF THE MOST IMPORTANT EVENTS IN THE CONQUEST OF CALIFORNIA

59. CALIFORNIA CONQUEST. Log book. Manuscript "Journal of a Cruise on Board the U. States Frigate Congress, Bearing the Broad Pendant of Commodore R. F. Stockton", by Midshipman Joseph Parrish, from October 8, 1846, to November 11, 1847. 140 pp., 4to, half roan.

This log book covers some of the most important events in the conquest of California.

Commodore Stockton assumed command of all American forces on the coast on July 23, 1846. He organized a battalion of Americans and naval brigades from crews of the ships, Col. John C. Frémont cooperating with him. Midshipman Parrish joined the ship at San Francisco on October 8, 1846, and on October 27 they took possession of San Pedro.

While Commodore Stockton was in the North the Mexicans recaptured Los as a hatter. He was the Editor of the American Citizen, the organ of the Republican party in New York; he was fond of invective and merciless in his attacks upon Burr. Cheetham died September 19, 1810, aged 37 years.

[Cheetham (James).] A View of the Political Conduct of Aaron Burr, Esq., Vice-President of the United States. By the Author of the "Narrative." New York: Printed by Denniston & Cheetham, No. 142 Pearl Street, 1802. [Copyright secured according to law.]

8vo, pp. 120. B A. N. W. 22.

A scurrilous pamphlet in which the author claims that Burr endeavored to obtain the Presidency in 1801.

[Cheetham (James).] An Antidote to John Wood's Poison. By Warren. New York: Printed by Southwick and Crooker, 354 Water Street, for Denniston and Cheetham, 1802. [Copyright secured according to law.]

This pamphlet was written in reply to Cheetham's View of the Political Character of Aaron Burr, Esq. (see No. 22 ante), and also to the Nine Letters on the Subject of Aaron Burr's Political Defection, by the same Author (see No. 25, ante).

Reprinted as below.

Virginia Edition of the Various Charges Exhibited against Aaron Burr, Esq., Vice-President of the United States. By Aristides. With the exception of such parts as are of a Local Nature. To which is added an Appendix by a Gentleman of North Carolina, proving that Gen. Hamilton at the last Presidential Election exerted all his influence to support Mr. Jefferson in opposition to Mr. Burr. [Virginia: Printed and for sale by the Booksellers in this State.]

[Wilkinson (James).] Washington, December 24th, 1807.

8vo, pp. 6. 106.

Contains copy of letter of Wilkinson to John Randolph, and Randolph's reply, also refers to the suspicion that Wilkinson was scheming with, and also of his being a pensioner of, the Spanish government.

Title through the courtesy of Paul L. Ford, Esq.

Wilkinson [(James).] Memoirs of General Wilkinson. Volume II. Washington City; Printed for the Author, 1811.

Also a second Title—Burr's Conspiracy Exposed, and General Wilkinson Vindicated against the Slanders of of his Enemies on that important occasion. 1811.

8vo, pp. 18, 99, 136. B A. P. C. P. H. S. 107.

Wilkinson says in his advertisement to this book that he was engaged in writing his Memoirs, and "had brought them down to the period of the Convention of Saratoga, when he discovered it was necessary he should abandon the course he had marked out for himself, to meet the torrent of vilification which continued to bear against him and prepare to combat the prejudices of the House of Representatives of the Eleventh Congress."

Wilkinson had been accused of having secured money from the Spanish government, and also of being an accomplice of Burr, and his conduct had been investigated by Congress. See ante, Nos. 27 58, 80, 81, 106.

This book was issued by Wilkinson in his own vindication, and also as a reply to Daniel Clark (see ante, No. 28), who had endeavored to prove that Wilkinson was corrupt, and had been concerned with Burr.

Sabin says of this volume (see Menzies Catalogue, page 454,) that he knew of but two other copies only in existence; the book is rare, but copies are to be found in many of the public and private libraries in the country.

Wilkinson (J,) Memoirs of My Own Times. By General James Wilkinson.

Remember that the ways of Heaven,
Though dark, are just; that oft some guardian power
Attends unseen to save the innocent!
But if high Heaven decrees our fall—O let us
Firmly await the stroke, prepared alike
To live or die. —Brown's Barbarossa.

For patriots still must fall for statesmen's safety,
And perish by the country they preserve. —Savage.

In three Volumes. Vol. I. Philadelphia: Printed by Abraham Small, 1811.

3 vols., 8vo. 1 vol., Maps, 4to. N. C. 108.

Vol. I, pp. xv, 855, Appendix [44]. Two fac simile letters from Gen. Burgoyne to Gen. Gates. Fac simile of the heads of Gen. Washington's first official letter to the President of Congress. Seven folded sheets.

Vol. II. Title, pp. 578. Appendix [260].

Vol. III. Title, pp. 496. Appendix [54]. 1 folded sheet.

The first volume of the Memoirs contains an account of the military events in which Wilkinson was engaged from 1775 to 1778, the part taken by him while commanding the army in Louisiana from 1797, and a history of portions of the war on the frontier in 1812–15.

The second volume contains his defense before the Court Martial by which he was tried in 1811 upon various charges, among others for receiving money from the Spanish government by way of pension, and also for combining and conspiring with Aaron Burr and his associates.

The third volume contains the proceedings of the Court Martial by which he was tried in 1815, on the charges of neglect of duty, unofficer-like conduct, &c.

See North American Review, Vol. 6, pp. 78–109.

The Memoirs are supplemented by a volume of diagrams and plans, with the following title:

Wood (J.) The History of the Administration of John Adams, Esq., Late President of the United States. By John Wood, Author of the History of Switzerland, and Swiss Revolution. New York Printed 1802.

8vo, pp. 506. N., B A., C., P. H. S. 113.

This book was printed and ready for publication in December, 1801, but was supressed at the instigation of Aaron Burr as being incorrect and also libellous. Overtures were made to the publishers, Messers. Barlas and Ward, by Burr and his friends, for the purchase of the edition, and it was finally given up to them. The book was subsequently issued, and the following advertisement appeared in the New York Evening Post for June 2, 1802:

"This day is published in one large octavo volume and for sale by Naphtali Judah, 84 Maiden Lane, The History of the Administration of John Adams, Late President of the United States. By John Wood, Author of the History of Switzerland and Swiss Revolution. The above is the work said to have been suppressed by the Vice-President."

Copies of the history exist, with the title-page mutilated by having the names of Barlas and Ward cut out. When the book was placed on sale a new title-page was added bearing the imprint, "New York Printed 1802."

James Cheetham published a "Narrative" of its suppression, see No. 21, ante, which was answered by John Wood in "A Correct Statement of the Various Sources from which the History of the Administration of John Adams was compiled and the Motives of its Suppression by Col. Burr," &c., &c. See No. 115.

Wood (J.) The Suppressed History of the Administration of John Adams (from 1797 to 1801) as printed and suppressed in 1802. By John Wood, Author of "The History of Switzerland," etc. Now republished with notes, and an appendix, by John Henry Sherburne, Author of "The Life and Character of Paul Jones," "Naval Sketches," "Etiquette," "Pencillings Abroad," etc. etc. Philadelphia: Published for the Editon, 1846.

Sm. 8vo, pp. 392. Portrait. 114.

John Wood was a native of Scotland, and in this country a political writer who adhered to the side of Burr, and with Cheetham and others, was engaged in the "Pamphlet War" of 1802–3–4, principally in regard to the Suppressed History of the Administration of John Adams. On July 4th, 1806, Wood issued, at Frankfort, Ky., the first number of the Western World, a paper originally projected by Joseph H. Daveiss, and in 1817 he edited a paper called the Atlantic World in Washington. Besides the political pamphlets etc., mentioned above, Wood published in 1809 a new theory of the diurnal motion of the earth. During the last years of his life he lived in Richmond, Va., and died in May 1822.

Wood (J.) A Correct Statement of the Various Sources from which the History of the Administration of John Adams was compiled, and the Motives for its Suppression by Col. Burr, with some Observations in a Narrative by a Citizen of New York. By John Wood, Author of the said History. New York: Printed and sold for the Author by G. F. Hopkins. 1802.

8vo, pp. 49. No. 115.

See ante, No. 21.
